

Craig Moore

CEO

AdventHealth Kissimmee

Craig Moore is the Chief Executive Officer of AdventHealth Kissimmee, a role he assumed in July 2025, following service as Chief Operating Officer (2023–2025), Executive Director of Clinical & Support Services (2021–2023), and Director of Business and Network Development (2019–2021).

Prior to joining AdventHealth Central Florida, Craig held leadership roles with Alternate Solutions Health Network, including Regional Vice President of Clinical Services (2018–2019) and Field Administrator (2017–2018).

Earlier in his career, Craig spent more than two decades with Florida Hospital in the Orlando area, advancing from clerical support through positions in physical therapy and rehabilitation services into a range of clinical and operational leadership roles, including Rehab Manager, Director of Operations, and Director.

Craig holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Central Florida and a Master of Science in Physical Therapy from Andrews University. He brings deep experience in healthcare operations, clinical services, and organizational leadership.

Additional information can be found on his LinkedIn profile.